Embracing Small in a Bigger-is-Better World

Discovery Verse: Colossians 3:23 ESV

Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men.

Grow Your Grit

In a "bigger is better" world, it takes grit to step out of the competition.

Embrace God's Grace

When we embrace our identity, we free ourselves from competition and move into grace.

1. We can easily slip into "working for men." What areas of your life pull you toward external rewards?

2. Is bigger better in ministry? Don't we need to reach everyone possible for Christ? How can I be valuable in my smallness and weakness?

3. Do you feel insignificant sometimes? What is the difference between feeling small and feeling insignificant?

4. Some of us feel not enough, some of us feel we are too much. How are you going to settle in to "just right" with God?

5. What will you embrace in yourself today that you haven't embraced before?

Prayer >>>—————>

Gracious God, You are so BIG and I am so small. Thank you for this reminder. Forgive me when I make myself too big or too small. You have made me wonderful! Help me to uncover the wonder you've placed in me and help me see how and where to share that with the world. Thank you for you goodness. In Jesus Name, Amen
