Grow Your Grit

God can use flawed women.

God can use flawed women.

~Debbie Wilson

Digging Deeper

1. Do you have a "Mona" in your life that you look up to?

2. Why do we often compare our weaknesses to others' strengths?

3. How has the perspective of time played a role in a difficult situation in your life?

4. How can we apply the story of Tamar to our lives today?

5. Amy mentioned Debbie's quote from her book, "Troubles come when instead of bringing our longings to God, we rely on our own understanding. God's wisdom agrees with His word. His ways don't isolate His moral standards." How can we apply this to our lives?

Discovery Prayer

Dear Jesus,
Thank you for using us even when we are flawed
to guide others to you.
Amen.
